

The Daniel Cardillo Charitable Fund

Guidelines for Application

History and Purpose

The family, friends and admirers of Dan Cardillo, a compassionate young man with a true love of life and its possibilities, established the Daniel Cardillo Charitable Fund in 1999. Dan was a junior Olympic skier, an avid fisherman, a serious student, a gifted artist and an exceptionally kind human being. He lived life fully and attacked all of his challenges with a passion that has become legendary. He encouraged others to do their personal best and reach for their goals.

This Fund celebrates Dan's passion for life and his friends by encouraging others to achieve their personal best. Scholarship assistance will be provided to young people pursuing their artistic, academic, athletic, and vocational or life's passion outside of the traditional school environment (i.e. experiential education, tuition for summer programs or studies, special athletic instruction, but not college tuition).

Criteria

Eligible applicants must:

1. Have a demonstrated need for financial assistance
2. Clearly demonstrate a commitment to their passion (i.e. through participation in lessons, performances, competitions, volunteerism) and a clear vision of their goals
3. Have a demonstrated compassion for others (i.e. through school and community involvement)

Terms of Award

All applications and required information sent separately must be postmarked by May 1. Incomplete applications or those postmarked after this date will not be processed. Recipients of an award must use their award within twelve (12) months of the grant or forfeit the award. Should recipients fail to complete the terms of the award, they shall repay the entire grant to the Daniel Cardillo Charitable Fund or provide a written request for extension of the award period.

All information received from applicants will be treated as confidential. Award winners will be notified by June 15.
