

George H. Cressy Memorial Scholarship Fund

The purpose of the George H. Cressy Memorial Scholarship is to support Portland High School students pursuing their personal best outside of the traditional school environment through experiential education, summer programs or special instruction. Eligible applicants are sophomores or juniors enrolled at Portland High School seeking to participate in an enrichment program or opportunity prior to their senior year. Preference will be given to students with financial need who exemplify Mr. Cressy's belief in hard work, perseverance, and loyalty.

All applications and required information sent separately must be postmarked by May 15. Incomplete applications or those postmarked after this date will not be processed.
