

SWANS ISLAND EDUCATIONAL ACHIEVEMENT TRUST FUND APPLICATION

The Swans Island Educational Achievement Trust Fund was established in 1997 to provide scholarship support for permanent residents of Swans Island who wish to further their education beyond high school at college, vocational, or technical schools. Awards will be made based on scholarship, achievement, service to the community, and financial need. The scholarship is renewable for a maximum of four years based on the continued performance and need of the student. The scholarships are not limited to recent high school graduates.

All applications and required information sent separately must be postmarked by May 1. Incomplete applications or those postmarked after this date will not be processed.
